These payments are broken down into two categories; the first category covers financial support in the nature of subsidies where the activities of the group have been guided and monitored, the second category shows payments to organizations with whose members an operational relationship for specific activities has been maintained. There is necessarily some overlapping as is indicated below.

A. CATEGORY I

	Name of Organization	Amount
1.	Consejo Revolucionario Cubano (CRC) Cuban Revolutionary Council	$137,000

This figure includes payments for administrative and organizational costs, CRC propaganda activities, payments to exile organizations affiliated with the CRC.

2.	Directorio Magisterial Revolucionario (DMR) Revolutionary Teachers Directorate	$ 20,000
----	---	-----------

Payments have covered the cost of this group's propaganda activities directed at Communist indoctrination of students in Cuba and teacher organizations in Latin America.

3.	Cruzada Femenina Cubana (CFC) Cuban Women's Crusade	$ 5,000
----	--	----------

The women's organization has directed propaganda to the Cuban domestic population and conducted propaganda campaigns with similar organizations in various countries.

4.	Unidad Revolucionaria (UR) Revolutionary Unity	$ 9,000
----	---	----------

5. Frente Obrero Revolucionario Democrática Cubano (FORDC)
Labor Revolutionary Democratic Front of Cuba $ 10,000

The FORDC, an exile labor group, has been affiliated with the CRC and received some funds from the Council as well as the direct payment. FORDC does not represent a united labor exile movement, but has conducted propaganda campaigns in the labor field, especially Latin America. FORDC has been able to introduce some propaganda into Cuba. Operational use of individual members of the FORDC has also been made.

6. Directorio Revolucionario Estudiantil (DRE)
Students Revolutionary Directorate $ 51,000

In addition to subsidizing the headquarters organization of the DRE in Miami ($25,000 monthly), direct contact and funding is maintained with representatives of the DRE in most Latin American countries for specific programs under guidance.

B. CATEGORY II

1. Movimiento de Recuperacion Revolucionario (MRR)
Movement for Revolutionary Recuperation $ 7,000

Apart from funds which the MRR receives through the CRC, operational relationships are maintained with individual members of the MRR for intelligence and resistance activities.

2. Confederacion de Trabajadores Cubanos (CTC)
Cuban Workers Confederation in Exile $ 1,500

While the activities of the CTC in exile have not been subsidized, direct operational use has been made of individuals in this labor organization. The CTC has consistently opposed the CRC.
